

FAQ

What is the aim of this conference?

This conference aims to facilitate exchanging of research done in Sustainable Agriculture and Food Production. The conference is not the same as competition, as there will be no prize provided, including free accommodation and transportation.

How about the accommodation during conference

There are several options regarding accommodation during conference:

1. Staying in a hotel,
2. Sharing the room with Indonesian students living in Wageningen

The committee will assist participants in providing suitable accommodation.

What is the output of this conference?

The output of this conference is published research in a proceeding with ISBN.

Where can I find a guideline for abstract and paper submission?

The guideline for abstract and paper is provided in the website under “General instruction for authors”.